

Spardha 2018

6th October, 2018

“Spardha”, a social entrepreneurship competition was organized by RMAX (Rural Managers Association of XSRM) during Xamboree, the Annual Cultural Fest of XUB. The event aims to test social entrepreneurship knowledge, propagates and provides solutions to the villagers with some successful B-plan. The event was judged by two esteemed professors from Xavier School of Rural Management: Prof. Sujit Jagadale and Prof. T. Kumar.

Rural Jedi, Aspiring Minds, Cold Blooded and Rural Mogul were the teams who had earlier visited neighbouring villages and had come up with different business plans for the benefit of that particular village. The winners of the competition was Rural Jedi who won the cash prize of Rs. 10,000 followed by the runners up Rural Mogul.
